DECIDES

AGAINST THE INJUNCTION.

Judge O'Rear, of the Court of Appeals, Says There is no Law to Interfere With Ohio County Primary.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 2.—Judge O'Rear, of the Court of Appeals, yesterday afternoon refused to relax the injunction to prevent the Democratic of the Sixth judicial district from holding a primary election on the day of the regular election in November. The injunction was granted by Circuit Clerk Anderson, of Ohio county, and was dissolved by Special Judge W. A. Helm, of Butler county.

As affecting the Sixth judicial district race, the decision is of no material importance, the Democratic committee of that district having changed the date of the primary from November 4, the regular election day, to November 12. The question has never been raised before in Kentucky, however, and the opinion of Judge O'Rear will be of general interest.

The opinion is as follows: "Plaintiffs seek by this suit to restrain defendants of the Democratic Committee of the Sixth judicial district of Kentucky from holding a primary election on the same day that the regular election is held on November 4, 1922. It is not claimed that defendants will, but, on the contrary, it is shown by order of the committee and by affidavits of members of the committee that they will not attempt to hold the primary election at the same place, or within fifty feet of the voting places wherein the regular election may be held in the counties affected by the order. Nor is it shown that there will be any attempt by the defendant committee to use the same ballot boxes or same voting paraphernalia as is provided by law for the holding of the regular election. On the contrary, it is ascertained and shown that defendants propose to hold their primary election by appointing voting places more than fifty feet distant from the regular voting places wherein the regular election is held and by separate and distinct officers and paraphernalia for conducting their primary.

"Whether a primary election held at different voting places from those provided by orders of the County Court for holding elections within such precincts and districts would be a valid election is a question, though argued, I do not feel called upon to determine. The sole question here is: Does it necessarily interfere with the rights of plaintiffs and other voters of the district affected? Unless the holding of the primary election invades the prescribed limits fixed by the statute for holding the regular elections, I am unable to see that it is anywhere prohibited by any positive declaration of legislation. Not being prohibited, it appears to me that the committee can, if they see proper to do so, hold their primary on the same day that the regular election is held. As to the proprieties of such action I do not see how the courts can undertake to determine them. That is a matter for the committee and the voters to pass on. If the Legislature had seen proper to prohibit the holding of primary elections on the same day that the general elections are held, they would undoubtedly have done so. Not having made such action illegal, I am unable to find the warrant for the court's attempt to do so. I, therefore, decline to relax the injunction dissolved in this case on the 14th day of August, 1922.

1,000 Perish.

Paris, Sept. 2.—The Havas agency has received an undated dispatch from Fort de France Island of Martinique, announcing that about 1,000 were killed and that several hundred were injured as the result of a violent eruption of Mt. Pelée on Saturday, August 30, which destroyed Morne Rouge and Ajoupa Bouillon, two villages near Mont Pelée.

The dispatch confirms the report that the village of Le Carbet was damaged by a tidal wave, which was also felt at Fort de France, where the people were struck.

The French cruisers Suchet and Tage are embarking people in the morning part of Martinique.

As Aesop Puts It.

A man had a glass in which he looked at himself every day. And he did not perceive that he grew older. But at length he perceived that the glass had grown old. So he threw it away and got another that was new. Then he saw that he had grown old with the glass.—Aesop's Fables (Revised)

THE DEBT

Of the United States, Less Cash on Hand, is Less Than a Billion Dollars.

Washington, Sept. 2.—The monthly statement of the public debt issued today shows that at the close of business August 30, 1922, the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $958,091,321, a decrease for the month of $5,818,646. This decrease is principally accounted for by a corresponding increase in the cash on hand.

The debt is recapitulated as follows: Interest-bearing debt, $931,070,343; debt on which no interest, $25,021,978; total, $1,327,582,821. This amount, however, does not include certificates and treasury notes outstanding, amounting to $845,876,689, which are offset by an equal amount of cash on hand held for their redemption.

The cash in the treasury is as follows: Gold reserve fund, $15,000,000; trust fund, $345,876,089; general fund, $168,785,421; in national bank deposits, $125,381,169; total, $1,295,042,679, against which there are demand liabilities outstanding amounting to $93,552,179, leaving a cash balance on hand of $359,491,500.

FROM MT. PELEE.

Village of Morne Rouge Destroyed by Saturday's Eruption—200 Killed.

Castries, Island of St. Lucia, D. W. I., Sept. 1.—The British steamer Kosmos arrived here yesterday evening from Fort de France, Island of Martinique. She reports that a terrible eruption of Mont Pelée occurred at 9 o'clock Saturday night and that people who arrived at Fort de France from the northern part of the island report that the village of Morne Rouge, near the district recently devastated, had been entirely destroyed and that Le Carbet, a village on the coast which was destroyed at the time of the great eruption, had been swept by a tidal wave. About two hundred persons lost their lives.

A sloop from the island of St. Vincent which reached here this morning reports that Mont Pelée's crater is now quiet, but that the detonations during Saturday night were the loudest heard up to that time and that the inhabitants were terribly alarmed.

Twenty-Five Killed.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 2.—An excursion train on the Southern, bound from Greenville, Miss., to Birmingham, was wrecked this morning near Berry, Ala. Twenty-five negroes are known to be dead, and Trainmaster H. M. Dudley, was killed instantly. Twenty-five more negroes are seriously, if not fatally, injured.

ATTENTION! G. A. R.

One Hundred and Seventy-Nine Battles Were Fought on or Adjacent to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the Civil War, 1861-1865. It was the first and most desirable point of vantage coveted by both the Federal and Confederate armies. In May, 1861, the four Federal advance columns concentrated at Parkersburg, W. Va., Wheeling, W. Va., Harper's Ferry, W. Va., and at Washington. To retain the advantage, the Federal government established block houses along the railroad from the Monocacy to the Ohio river, besides forts at Winchester, Harper's Ferry, Cumberland, Piedmont and New Creek (Keyser). The B. & O. was the base of operations for the Federal army for nearly four years and from which the government could not take advantage later than November, 1864. The B. & O. was the means of communication between the West and the Army of the Potomac, and was consequently in a continual state of siege. Harper's Ferry, the key to the Shenandoah Valley, first landed through the insatiable attempt of John Brown, in defying the laws and customs of his country, was captured or recaptured eight times in three years. The Government Arsenal and armories which were located there, were destroyed by the government to prevent their capture. One hundred and seventy-nine battles of greater or less importance were fought on or adjacent to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, not taking into consideration the innumerable skirmishes.

Trains of the B. & O. S. W., will take you through the same territory en route to the 36th Annual Encampment, G. A. R., at Washington, October 6-11, and very low rates will be made from all points on the B. & O. S. W.

ROOSEVELT HURT.

Electric Car Smashes Into His Carriage at Pittsfield.

A Secret Service Agent and Horses Killed Outright.

The President is Bruised and Scratched on the Face.

Secretary Cortelyou Hurt and the Driver, D. J. Pratt, Has His Skull Fractured.

Pittsfield, Mass., Sept. 3.—The drag containing President Roosevelt and party, en route from Pittsfield to Lenox, Mass., was struck by an electric car this morning and demolished. Secret Service Agent Craig, who has accompanied the president on his entire trip, was killed and D. J. Pratt, the driver of the carriage, had his skull fractured. Craig occupied a seat with the driver. The drag was being driven across the track when the car, which came at a high rate of speed, struck first the horses, which were killed, then the vehicle, which was badly wrecked and all of the occupants thrown to the ground.

The president was bruised about the body and limbs and his face was scratched so that it bled freely. His injuries are not serious.

Secretary Cortelyou suffered several cuts and bruises, but is not dangerously hurt. He was sitting beside the president at the time of the accident.

Later in the day, after all of the injured had received surgical attention, the president proceeded on his tour. He was suffering somewhat from his injuries, but not enough, he declared, to force him to abandon his plans. The motorman and conductor of the car have been placed under arrest, the charge against them being manslaughter.

Died at Her Home in Tennessee.
Rev. W. D. Nowlin, pastor of the Upper Street Baptist Church returned from Sharon, Tenn., yesterday, where he had been to attend the funeral of his mother Mrs. Caroline Glass Nowlin. He received a telegram yesterday a week ago that his mother was at point of death. He arrived Saturday morning two hours before the end came.

Mrs. Nowlin was a 54 years old, and had been sick only a few days, but she gradually grew worse.

She was a niece to the Hon. P. T. Glass, who was Congressman from the ninth district of Tennessee for a number of years.

Mrs. Nowlin and her husband lived together for forty years without a death in the family. There were nine children and all are living to-day.—Lexington Leader.

Mrs. Nowlin was the mother of Mr. C. P. Nowlin, of this place.

Death at Ceralvo.
Ceralvo, Sept. 1.—Death came sweetly, August 28, to the patient sufferer, Mr. W. D. Barnard, of this place.

Mr. Barnard had been dangerously ill for some time and notwithstanding the loving kindness of a devoted companion and all aid that medical science could offer, death slowly, but surely wended its way into that, now heart-broken home.

Language is to inadequate to express our profound sympathy for the bereaved family and the greatest consolation we are able to offer them is, that we know the spirit of the companion and father to-day is basking in the sunlight of God's eternal presence; and is now looking down upon those who mourn his loss with that same love and parental kindness that so characterized his earthly home.

Resolutions of Respect.
At a regular meeting of Rough River Lodge No. 110, K. of P., held in Castle Hall, Hartford, Ky., Tuesday evening, August 26th, 1902, the following resolutions were offered and by the Lodge unanimously adopted, to wit:

Whereas, it has come to the knowledge of this Lodge that our brother Knight, C. P. Nowlin and family, are in the darkest gloom of sorrow's night, that the angel of death has visited the home of his parents and called away his dearest and best friend, his mother, Mrs. Caroline Nowlin,

Therefore, it is now resolved by the officers and members of this Lodge, in token of the esteem in which we hold him as a brother Knight, we extend to him and his family our deepest sympathy, will share his sorrow and so far as possible comfort him and his family while their hearts are bowed under this, the greatest of bereavements. We commend to him in this sad hour the promises of love and consolation made by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be presented to our brother and a copy be spread on the records of this Lodge.

HOUSE BREAKING.

John Probus Charged With Robbing a House Near Horse Branch.

John Probus, a laborer, was arrested and brought before Reqnire Martin at Horse Branch Wednesday, charged with breaking into and robbing the residence of Messrs. Granville Kelley and ———— Malden, near Horse Branch, and held in the sum of $200, for which Mrs. Catherine Stewart became his surety.

Messrs. Kelley and Malden are bachelors, living in the same house, about three miles east of Horse Branch, who are not favorable to the banking business, and hoard their wealth in the garret.

Tuesday afternoon while they were in the field at work some party or parties entered the house and fearing immediate detection, carried a trunk and a valise to the woods, where the trunk was broken open with a rock and $93.00 in cash was taken.

Bloodhounds were, upon the discovery of the theft, telephoned for, but were, owing to the lapse of time, unable to follow the thief. Snaphoon pointed to Probus and he was arrested Tuesday with the result mentioned.

Young Plants
Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatsoever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatsoever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatsoever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatsoever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

One-Fourth Off

If you firmly believed that we were about to sell seasonable High-Grade Spring and Summer Goods at ONE-FOURTH off, you'd come here to buy, wouldn't you? We pride ourselves on selling good goods, and that they are worth the regular price, is a matter of record. Now if you knew that seventy-five cents would buy a dollar's worth of good clothing, you would buy, wouldn't you? Of course you would if you believed it, but the trouble is that

You Don't Really Believe It.

So many merchants rant about big bargains that are really snafes and print bombastic stuff that shows fraud on its face, that you are about out of belief. We can't blame you, but we reserve the right to prove what we say and we will, if you will give us the opportunity.

We are now unloading our Spring and Summer Stock, and the sale won't last long—better come now if you want to save money. Here are
